Description
-------------

Trusted by over 670 schools in 45 countries worldwide, SIMS Independent is the leading management information supplier. Featuring award-winning technology to give a clear picture of school performance, SIMS is designed to meet the unique needs of your international school.

Our customers tell us their key reasons for choosing SIMS include:

- they've found no other management information system with the innovation, breadth and flexibility of SIMS to support them in meeting their school's vision
- they consider membership of the thriving and growing SIMS Middle East community to be extremely valuable. This year we hosted our largest ever user group in the Middle East with over 50 delegates in attendance
- they consider our account management and customer support to be unequalled.

For more information on how SIMS International can support your school in the delivery of academic and pastoral excellence, please call Kyle Longhurst on +44 (0)1285 647473 or email kyle.longhurst@capita-independent.co.uk
